

THE ONE

ABOUT EXPERTS:

Exploring Contemporary ICL Practice &
Challenges with Experts & Friends
29 November 2025

A conference in three episodes

Panel 1: The One Where the Defence Counsels Give Their Expert Opinions on 2025 [09.30-11.00]

Spotlighting the expertise of defence counsel in ongoing international criminal proceedings from their case experiences, strategic choices, and ethical considerations.

Confirmed speakers: Mylène Dimitri, Iain Edwards, Kate Gibson and Joe Holmes. Moderated by: Annie O'Reilly

Panel 2: The One Where They Talk About Expert Witnesses in ICL [11.30-13.00]

Examining the role of expert witnesses in international criminal; how is this evidence used, tested, and evaluated and the broader impact it has on the pursuit of justice.

Confirmed speakers: Judge Sergio Ugalde, Sabrina Rewald, Anna Sagana and Dr. Kacper Zajac

Panel 3: The One Where Experts Talk About International Domestic Justice [14.30-16.00]

Introducing what expertise is required to conduct field investigations, navigate domestic and international frameworks, and support accountability in transitional or post-conflict settings.

Confirmed speakers: Mohamed Badar

Conference Information

Marriott Hotel
Johan de Wittlaan 30
2517 JR
The Hague
The Netherlands
Information and directions are available
here.

Please register online by Friday 21 November 2025 at <https://www.adc-ict.org/annualconference> and make payment by credit card, Paypal or direct bank transfer. Fees are non-refundable.

Fees:

Excluding Lunch: Full - €60.00 Students/Interns - €50.00

Including Lunch: Full - €85.00 Students/Interns - €75.00

Members of the ADC-ICT are entitled to receive a 25% discount.